NovaPoint Capital Announces Appointment of New Managing Director and Portfolio Manager

Atlanta, Georgia — May 3, 2019— NovaPoint Capital announced today that Frederick Wright has joined the firm as a Managing Director and Portfolio Manager. With over 25 years of experience in the investment industry, Frederick brings to NovaPoint Capital a wide breadth of industry knowledge and experience. Most recently, he served as a Partner and Wealth Advisor at Brightworth where he advised high net worth investors. Frederick began his investment career in 1991 and has also worked at Balentine & Company, Wright Investment Management, and Smith Howard Wealth Management. Prior to beginning his investment career, Frederick served as an officer in the United States Army.

“I am looking forward to joining NovaPoint Capital and contributing to the growth and success of this dynamic firm. NovaPoint prides itself on its disciplined approach to investment management and serving clients with the highest levels of integrity,” Frederick commented.

Alan Conner, President of NovaPoint Capital said, “We are very pleased to have Frederick join NovaPoint Capital. His investment and advisory experience should have an immediate impact on our growth”.

“Frederick is an ideal fit for NovaPoint Capital. He is an experienced investment professional and both a military veteran and Chartered Financial Analyst. He is a great example of NovaPoint’s attributes of Experience, Discipline, and Integrity,” said Joseph Sroka, Chief Investment Officer at NovaPoint Capital, a fellow Army veteran and CFA charterholder.
